

Justine May 911 call chronology

March through September 2026

17 calls arranged by date and time from the handwritten FOIA audio notes, with supplemental call details and a corrected date. Durations are minutes and seconds; timestamps are kept in 24-hour format. Summaries describe the notes and caller reports. Caller names and initials are omitted.

Date	Timestamp	Length	Short summary
Mar 17 Notes p. 1	07:39:58	3:37	Justine calls about vandalism involving slashed tires.
Apr 11 Notes p. 1	22:52:58	3:08	The father reports a man yelling gibberish in the street. No weapon is reported; the behavior is described as verbal and unsettling. The notes reference the earlier vandalism.
Aug 10 Notes p. 2	19:31:03	5:03	Justine calls about a dispute with her fiance involving leaving the home; the children are inside. The notes do not clearly identify who is being prevented from leaving.
Aug 11 Notes p. 2	19:10:26	3:56	Justine requests a police escort after the previous day's domestic dispute and mentions wanting to serve an eviction notice.
Aug 25 Notes p. 1	12:22:12	7:07	The father requests a welfare check after the separation and says Justine will not let anyone inside. He wants to know the girls are okay. When asked whether they are in danger, he says he does not think so; he reports being turned away the previous day.
Aug 26 Added call	10:34:25	7:24	The father requests a welfare check and reports Justine wrote "countdown to 1 fucking day" on a wall.
Aug 27 Notes p. 3	Not recorded	4:11	Justine reports unwanted contact from her ex-fiance, including banging and not leaving her alone. An eviction notice is mentioned.
Aug 30 Notes p. 3	16:01:45	2:46	DSS requests officer assistance. No additional circumstances are recorded in the handwritten notes.

Justine May 911 call chronology

September 2026 continued

Date	Timestamp	Length	Short summary
Sep 8 Notes p. 3	13:39:32	8:33	The father makes an initial request for a check on his children. He reports Justine is barricaded inside amid a mental health episode, communication has stopped, and she will not send photos. He says he has not seen the children or received photos in weeks.
Sep 8 Notes p. 3	16:25:23	3:31	The father follows up on the welfare check he requested earlier that day. The notes suggest an attempt may have been made, but do not clearly establish the outcome.
Sep 11 Notes p. 3	15:02:10	9:50	A caller reports escalating behavior, delusions, blocked contact and concern for Justine and two young children in the home. The caller urges a Mobile Crisis evaluation.
Sep 12 Notes p. 2	18:13:56	3:21	Mobile Crisis-related call. No additional details are recorded in the handwritten notes.
Sep 22 Notes p. 2	10:55:44	3:56	A friend requests a welfare check after no contact since September 13. The caller describes concerning Facebook posts, a history of mental health issues, an unmoved car and closed curtains, and expresses concern for the two babies.
Sep 23 Notes p. 1	16:53:46	1:57	A caller follows up on the previous day's welfare check, asks whether contact was made and says no case number was provided. The caller is told someone will call back.
Sep 24 Notes p. 2	15:47:37	3:05	A caller follows up again, says a restricted callback went to an office number, and asks to provide a different callback number.
Sep 28 Notes p. 2	15:14:58	5:08	A caller again seeks welfare-check follow-up, explains a prior callback went to an office after closing and says dispatch was subsequently given a cell number. The notes also record uncertainty about whether the girls are alive.
Sep 29 Added call	12:31:51	3:39	A caller requests a welfare check after seeing Justine walking without the children.

Sources: 911 Summaries.pdf, pages 1-3, supplemented by call details and the September 8 date correction supplied in chat. The August 27 timestamp is absent. The August 10 wording about leaving and the September 8 follow-up outcome require confirmation against the recordings. CAD entry and closure times are separate from these audio timestamps.